

From our analysis of the IMDB database, we may draw the following conclusions:

The most releases occurred in January, March, September, and October, however since 2017, fewer films have been made overall. The top 3 highest-grossing and most releases, with an average runtime of 107 minutes, are in the "drama" genre. One of the top 3 production companies and one of the top 2 with the most success in producing multilingual films is Twentieth Century Fox. The most successful films with an average rating of > 8 have been created by "Dream Warrior Films" and "National Theatre Live"! It has been established that the top 3 genres for movies are drama, action, and adventure. As they have the highest average rating, Vijay Sethupathi, Yogi Babu, and Fahadh Faasil are the top Indian actors, and Taapsee Pannu is the top Hindi actress. The top 3 actresses in the drama category are Parvathy Thiruvothu, Susan Brown, and Amanda Lawrence. Mohanlal and Mammooty are the top two actors overall with a median rating of 8 or higher. We can choose character/filler actors from the bulk of movies, which have median rating of 7, for familiarity's sake. James Mangold is one of the best directors, with 4 of his movies ranking in the top 3. Steven Soderbergh has the best statistics among the top 9 directors in terms of the number of films they have directed (Sion Sono, Chris Stokes, Sam Liu, Steven Soderbergh, Jesse V. Johnson, Justin Price, Ozgur Baskar, Andrew Jones, and A.L. Vijay)
